SAFFORD NEWS BUDGET

MRS. W. D. FRENCH, Correspondent

SAFFORD, March 31.—C. S. Phillips was an incoming passenger from Tucson yesterday afternoon.

Miss Angie Robinson returned to her home in Safford Wednesday morning after a month's visit with relatives and friends in Globe.

H. J. Dowdle left for Globe yesterday afternoon.

Layton school district re-elected William B. Fenda school trustee. In Lebanon, Joseph Hamblin was elected.

The Kirkendall family from Globe are living on the Seibel ranch in Lebanon, which Mr. Kirkendall leased from Charles Waffle, who left for the Imperial valley.

Mrs. Ben Mauer is expecting a visit from her sister, who lives in Colorado. She will be accompanied by Miss Deidell, who will visit her parents and brother in Safford.

The Valley Milling company is meeting with obstacles in the excavation necessary for the proper installation of the machinery to operate the mill. At a depth of fourteen feet a heavy flow of water was encountered, which they are trying to exhaust by pumping, to enable them to make a sixteen foot excavation and to line same with cement. They have been working three days to that end and success is not yet in sight.

A sad affair last week in Lebanon is an example of the danger which lies in subjecting children to fright. Ina Russell, the 12 year old daughter of H. W. Russell, of Lebanon, was seized by a youth who threatened to throw her in the ditch. When released, the child ran home and told the tale in a tremulous, broken way, and became so ill that a physician was summoned. Next day, Thursday, the child died of heart failure, brought on from nervous excitement. The remains were interred in the Union cemetery last Friday.

The Good Templars will hold their regular meeting tonight.

According to the information made public, $20,000,000 was appropriated for the construction of the West Coast road by the Harriman interests. Grant Brothers have drawn on this fund at various times. Sometimes they have received as high as $100,000 in one payment, but more often less.

In the three or four years which have elapsed since they began the contract they have never effected a complete settlement, up to the present time.

Recently the books of the construction company were sent here and placed side by side with those of the Southern Pacific in Auditor Vinson's office for adjudication. That process is very nearly completed now, it is said, for the differences between the books have been narrowed to a few hundred dollars, and it is probable that they will stipulate that the relatively small sum shall be split between the two companies. Mr. Grant and Mr. Cashion have come here to attend the striking of the balance and to receive payment.

Scene of Wonderful Biblical Find and Tablet With Story of Deluge

TEMPLE WHERE TABLET WAS FOUND.

Professor Hilprecht of the University of Pennsylvania recently translated from a clay tablet found at Nippon, Babylon, what is believed to be the true story of the deluge. The history is said to have been cut in the stone 200 years before Abraham left Ur to go to the Garden of Canaan. The story told on the ancient tablet tallies in a remarkable degree with the story of the great flood as it appears in the Bible.

BISBEE NEGRO NEAR LYNCHING AFTER ABUSING BOY

Only Pleading of Victim's Father Saves Brute From the Mob

BISBEE, March 31.—One of the most revolting crimes ever noted in Bisbee was that perpetrated by the negro Vernon Stewart, Saturday, and which resulted in a near-lynching Sunday night. Saturday afternoon James Kreighbaum, transformer, was passing an old shed near the Loretto convent with his team. He heard voices within raised in anger and determined to investigate. Leaving his team, he approached the shed window and there stood Stewart with knife in hand, threatening a small boy. The sight was so horrible that Kreighbaum turned faint for a moment. The boy looked up and saw him, then ran from the negro. Closely followed by the latter, the boy made his way out among the rocks and the two disappeared from sight.

Mr. Kreighbaum reported the matter to the officers, but no trace of the negro could be found. They searched all day Sunday, but without result. While they were searching elsewhere, however, Stewart made his way to his home up Brewery Gulch and went to bed.

There about 10 o'clock Sunday night a party of about twenty indignant citizens found him. They marched to his home with a rope in their hands and dragged Stewart with no gentle force from his bed. They marched down Brewery avenue and when near the southwestern depot ran into Constables Twomey and McKee, who were out looking for the fellow. He was promptly taken from the crowd, who handled him in no gentle manner, and placed in the branch county jail.

Had it not been for the father of the boy there is no doubt that the crowd would have wreaked summary vengeance, as they had come prepared with the rope in their hands. At his intercession only did they desist from stringing the pervert up to the telegraph pole nearest his dwelling, and would still have carried out their intention if they had not happened upon the officers who took the fellow from them.

The story of the little boy whom he so shamefully treated was that the negro found him near the spot where they were discovered by Kreighbaum and enticed him into the shed. He broke and tried to run from him, but the negro drew a knife and said if he didn't obey him he would cut his throat. The little fellow also states that another boy, five years old, was forced by Stewart into the same performance a short time ago.

The wretch, when dragged from his bed by the citizens Sunday night, quaked with fear, and tremblingly begged for mercy. He nearly fainted when he caught sight of the rope and heaved a sigh of relief when the officers took charge of him.

MABIN CHILDREN TO HOMES IN LOS ANGELES

Given Up Unwillingly by Devoted Mother to Children's Home

In order that they may be provided with good homes and given educations which will make them better men and women, five children of Mrs. Dan Mabin will today be taken to Los Angeles and placed in the care of the Children's Home Society of California and Arizona.

Three boys and two girls of the Mabin family, ranging in ages from three to eleven years, were yesterday turned over to A. H. Gunnett, in charge of the Children's Home society. They were at once taken in hand by a number of charitably inclined women of this city and put in shape for the journey. They were bathed and dressed in new clothes. The ladies of the Presbyterian church furnished lunch for the children during their trip to Los Angeles.

Mrs. Mabin gave up the children only after a struggle. She realized, however, that it was to the advantage of the little ones to allow them to be placed in good homes and she eventually relinquished her hold upon them. Four of the children were by a former husband named Carter. The youngest came after her marriage to Mabin, who was recently committed to the territorial insane asylum.

The county board of supervisors voted the sum of $200 toward defraying the expenses of taking the children to California and keeping them in the home of the institution until homes can be found for them, the supervisors feeling that it was better to expend money in preventing criminals than in prosecuting them.

Less than a year ago, Mr. Gunnett placed eight Globe children in the Los Angeles home. All of these children have been assigned to good homes and are showing a great improvement, both morally and mentally. During the same time fifteen children from Bisbee have been given homes by the same institution with the result that much good work has already been done in the territory through this institution.

KEPT SECRET WELL

Supposed Spinster Had Entered Holy Bonds Over Five Years Ago

LEWISTOWN, Pa., March 30.—Miss Rhoda Taylor, believed by all her friends to be a spinster, died several months ago. The administrator advertised to sell the farm, an old homestead, with stock and implements. On the day of the sale the auctioneer mounted the block and announced that the sale had been indefinitely postponed. It has just leaked out that on the morning of the sale, in rummaging among her papers, Miss Taylor's will was found. In it she bequeathed all her property to her husband. Attached to the document was a marriage certificate showing that she had been married to Samuel Gilliland, a well known farmer of the valley, more than five years prior to her death.

SAINT PAUL YOUTH HAS SKEPTICAL FATHER

Order's Boy Not to Marry Till He Sees Him—All Ends Happily

ST. PAUL, Minn., March 30.—Christ G. Nelson, who formerly lived near Missoula, Mont., but who of late has called St. Croix county, Wisconsin, his home, and Anna Lerfeld of St. Croix county, Wisconsin, were married by Court Commissioner Henry Gallie at the courthouse in the presence of immediate friends. Behind this simple tale is a tale of true love and its triumph over obstacles.

Christ is a clean cut young man of 21, while the bride is only 18 years old. Fred Nelson, father of the boy, represented the obstacles in the little drama. He was a benighted witness of the nuptial ceremony.

The affair started when young Nelson decided to visit the old home of the Nelson family in St. Croix county and started east last fall. Arriving in St. Croix county he met Miss Lerfeld and as soon as the big western youth saw the dainty St. Croix miss he realized that he had met his affinity. Instead of returning to his Montana home he sent word to his parents that he had decided to remain in the east for a while and obtained a position in the Wisconsin town.

His courtship of Miss Lerfeld went smoothly, but his absence from home caused uneasiness. The elder Nelson was not born yesterday, in his own words, and he detected something in the wind. Christ's letters were all about the beautiful scenery surrounding his new home in Wisconsin and the delightful winter sports—never a word about the girl.

Finally, however, a letter arrived in Montana announcing the engagement of Christ and Miss Lerfeld. Now, Mr. Nelson, the elder, had preconceived opinions as to what kind of a bride his son should choose. Hardly had the rural postman delivered the missive with the portentous tidings than he hitched his team to the sleigh and went to town to telegraph. "Don't dare to get married until I arrive. Meet me in St. Paul," ran the telegram.

Hereupon Christ stole a march upon his father. Instead of coming alone he brought his intended bride and her sister and friends with him. The party met Mr. Nelson in St. Paul yesterday, and Mr. Nelson had a long talk with Mr. Lerfeld. At the conclusion of the interview, Mr. Nelson, the younger, drew his parent to one side.

"You see," he said, "Annie and I want to get married. She thinks I'm all right, and I'm sure she's all right, and—er—ah—condid you withdraw your objections and let us get married next week."

"You will not get married next week," replied the harsh parent. "Instead you'll come right home to Montana with me. But," he added, "if you and Annie will get married right away she can come along. My boy, if I hadn't got married long ago, I'd want to marry her myself."

Young Mr. and Mrs. Nelson and Mr. Nelson the elder left for Montana, while the St. Croix party, enthused over their mission, returned to their homes.

USUALLY ONE DOSE ENDS INDIGESTION AND GAS

No Dyspepsia, Heartburn, Gas or Headache Five Minutes Later

If what you just ate is souring on your stomach or lies like a lump of lead, refusing to digest, or you belch gas and eructate sour, undigested food or have a feeling of dizziness, heartburn, fullness, nausea, bad taste in mouth and stomach headache—this is indigestion.

A full case of Pape's Diapiesin costs only 50 cents and will thoroughly cure your out-of-order stomach, and leave sufficient about the house in case some one else in the family may suffer from stomach trouble or indigestion.

Ask your pharmacist to show you the formula plainly printed on these 50-cent cases, then you will understand why dyspeptic trouble of all kinds must go, and why they usually relieve sour, out-of-order stomachs or indigestion in five minutes. Diapiesin is harmless and tastes like candy, though each dose contains power sufficient to digest and prepare for assimilation into the blood all the food you eat; besides, it makes you go to the table with a healthy appetite; but, what will please you most is that you will feel that your stomach and intestines are clean and fresh, and you will not need to resort to laxatives or liver pills for biliousness or constipation.

This city will have many Diapiesin cranks, as some people will call them, but you will be cranky about this splendid stomach preparation, too, if you ever try a little for indigestion or gastritis or any other stomach misery.

Get some now, this minute, and forever rid yourself of stomach trouble and indigestion.

MET OLD FRIEND IN COLORADO CITY

The following item appeared in a recent issue of the Phoenix Democrat, and will doubtless be of interest to Mr. Reppy's many friends and acquaintances in this city:

"Charles D. Reppy of Florence, right of way agent for the Southern Pacific, is in the city today, accompanied by Mrs. Reppy. Reppy met an old boyhood chum in Phoenix today in the person of Senator John M. Thurston. Reppy and Senator Thurston sat upon the same bench way back in the good old days in the log school house in Mississippi."
